

Körber: Oliver Weber appointed as CEO Software in the Business Area Pharma

Lüneburg, Germany, 23 January 2025. Oliver Weber joined Körber on 2 January 2025 as Chief Executive Officer (CEO) Software in the Business Area Pharma. In this role, he will lead the global software business of the Business Area Pharma.

Oliver Weber has more than 25 years of experience as General Manager with a strong background in software, technology, innovation and digital, gained in international leadership roles including ABB, Accenture and Wincor Nixdorf. Before joining Körber, he was the Chief Executive Officer of the CREALOGIX Group, a Swiss-based global software company that specializes in digital banking solutions.

In his role at Körber, Oliver Weber is responsible for the long-term vision and profitable growth strategy of the global software business of the Business Area Pharma.

“As the integrating layer of the portfolio, our software solutions play an essential role in the growth agenda of the Business Area Pharma and hold tremendous potential for our customers,” says Erich Hoch, Group Executive Board Member and President Business Area Pharma at Körber. “We are very pleased that we were able to win Oliver Weber as new CEO for our software business. He will contribute with his experience to support our customers in positioning their business for the future in our ambition to be the leading supporter of manufacturers in the digitalization of their pharmaceutical, biotech and cell & gene therapy production.”
